

DynaIndustrial has built weigh measure stations to provide final tally on outgoing pipe indicating weight, length and labelling with painted stencils, pin stamping, or color banding as required. This ensures accurate tracking of outgoing products.

This system can be integrated with pipe tracking software.

We utilize a human machine interface (HMI) screen to allow for ease of operator interactions with the machine.

It also comes equipped with an integrated diagnostic interface.

