

Complete rebuild service of caster segments including hard surfacing of rolls, remanufacture of components and assembly. Using an existing OEM design, design improvements were made to increase service life, resulting in decreased maintenance cost. Resurfacing of the rolls are done in-house with multiple sub arc machines and machining capabilities. Productivity increased from start to finish.

